3 Points to Remember.

IN QUALITIES. We aim to keep only the best—the kind that retain trade, as well as win it. No room for the unsatisfactory in our stock.

STYLE. Fashion's latest fancies find full swing in our show-rooms. When a thing is new and good, we have it.

PRICES. You can always count on your dollars traveling further here than anywhere else; we are never undersold—not if we know it, and that's one of the secrets of our success.

MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

We have in our employ MR. W. B. LOGAN, who, having represented some of the largest Northern houses, in this section, for years, is well posted, and keeps in touch with the demands of this section. Anything entrusted to him will receive prompt attention.

For Young Married People.

Try to be satisfied to commence on a small scale.

Try to avoid the too common mistake of making an unwise effort to "begin where the parents ended."

Try not to look at richer homes and covet their costly furniture. Try going a step further and visit the home of the suffering poor when secret dissatisfaction is liable to spring up.

Try buying all that is necessary to work with skillfully, while adorning the house at first with simply what will render it comfortable.

Try being perfectly independent from the first, and shun debt in all its forms.

Try to cultivate the moral courage that will resist the arrogance of fashion.

Try to cooperate cheerfully in arranging the family expenses, and share equally in any necessary self-denials and economies.

Try to be cheerful in the family circle, no matter how annoying may be the business cares and the housekeeping trials.

Cleanliness of the head usually insures a good growth of hair. An occasional application of Hall's Hair Renewer will aid to keep the hair of a natural color.

An Indiana editor was recently successful in a suit against a delinquent subscriber who "had never ordered the paper," but who, it was found, had regularly called for it and taken it out of the post-office for two years. The court ordered that the subscriber pay subscription account of $3, and $16 for the cost of suit.—Ex.

Quinine and other fever medicines take from 5 to 10 days to cure fever. Johnson's Chill and Fever Tonic cures in ONE DAY.

A Wasp.

The following is a small boy's composition on the wasp:

"A wasp is a six-legged bird that lives mostly in trees and under the eaves of barns, and you cannot tain him; he is too busy. Never stroke his fur the wrong way because it makes him mad, and when a wasp is mad I don't want nothing to do with them. He has what they call a 'stinger,' and when he goes out a stinging, boys must keep away from him. I leaned up agin one once when he was busy; and I jumped as much as a feet; ma had to put a mud pie on the place. I hit a wasp's nest with a stone once and the boss wasp chased me clean across the lot so fast that when I got over the fence I tore my pants; then ma spanked me till I wished I had let the old wasp sting me."

"Some say wasp make honey, but if their honey is as hot as their stinging, I don't want none. Pa says the stinging aint's so bad at first as the rekolekshun of it for a few days. He ought to know, cos me and my brother Ike got on the roof and poked a big nest from the peak down in the barnyard while pa was milking."

Johnson's Chill and Fever Tonic is a ONE-DAY Cure. It cures the most stubborn case of Fever in 24 Hours.

Not Too Suddenly.

Norman's Neutralizing Cordial does not act as an astringent alone, checking too suddenly, but reduces inflammation and acidity of the secreting membranes of the bowels, thereby bringing them to healthy action. Dr. J. F. W. DeLorme, Sumter, S. C., buys Norman's Indian Worm Pellets in gross lots. His patrons want no other Worm Specific. 10 and 25c. Sold by Wallace & Johnson.

Novel Reading.

The late Mr. Boyesen, in The Forum, speaking of excess of novel reading, says: "Who that has read Rousseau's 'Confessions' will fail to remember the emphatic avowal that he was unfitted for life by the reading of novels? Like the opium habit, the craving for fiction grew upon him, until the fundamental part of him had suffered irreparable harm. He is not the only one who has experienced detrimental effects from dwelling too long in the pleasant land of romance. As soon as a man—and particularly a child—gets acclimated there he is likely to become of very small account, as far as reality is concerned. He becomes less and less able to apply sound standards of judgment to the things of this world, and as the success in life for which we are striving depends primarily upon this ability to see things straight and to judge them clearly no one can escape the conclusion that a large consumption of romantic fiction tends distinctly to disqualify a man for worldly success."

From Appearances.

Armstrong—That's Muggins. He was pretty badly hurt in a fight the other day.

Do Manising—Where? "On the West Side." "He walks as if he'd been hurt a little on the east side too."—Chicago Tribune.

An English beauty was in the habit of curling her hair with 25 Bank of England notes. She occasionally showed herself to visitors with her hair in this costly paper. She soon captured a wealthy husband, who discovered that she was a deceiver, for she had borrowed the money she had displayed.

The gambling game "craps," which so deeply engrosses the "triffin" kind of colored men in the south, was invented by the aristocratic Marquis Bernard de Marigny of New Orleans, who entertained Louis Philippe when the latter visited Louisiana.

An Indian Beauty From Georgia.

When Vivekananda, the Hindoo monk, visited Chicago during the World's fair, he was greatly delighted one afternoon to learn that the "international beauty show" on the Midway plaisance contained an East Indian princess. He lost no time in visiting the show. In one of the booths was a dusky damsel arrayed in East Indian costume and prominently placarded as a charmer from the land of the Ganges.

Vivekananda addressed her politely in Hindoostanee, and for his pains was rewarded by a stare of blank astonishment. Then he tried Cingalese with no better success, and also the several allied dialects of the interior provinces of India. At last the dusky beauty spoke in sheer self defense:

"Go 'way, man," she said. "You mus' be crazy!" "Excuse me," remarked Vivekananda, in faultless English, "but will you kindly inform me where you were born?"

"I 'be born in Savannah, an I 'be gun lived in Georgy all mah life," she said, "but yo' can't fool wid me, if yo' is a stuck up no'thern niggah!" And he didn't try to do so.—Chicago Times-Herald.

As small letters weary the eye most, so also the smallest affairs disturb us most.—Montaigne.

THE DANGER

to which the Expectant Mother is exposed and the foreboding and dread with which she looks forward to the hour of woman's severest trial is appreciated by but few. All effort should be made to smooth these rugged places in life's pathway for her, ere she presses to her bosom her babe.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

allays Nervousness, and so assists Nature that the change goes forward in an easy manner, without such violent protest in the way of Nausea, Headache, Etc. Gloomy forebodings yield to cheerful and hopeful anticipations—she passes through the ordeal quickly and without pain—is left strong and vigorous and enabled to joyously perform the high and holy duties now devolved upon her. Safety to life of both is assured by the use of "Mother's Friend," and the time of recovery shortened.

"I know one lady, the mother of three children, who suffered greatly in the birth of each, who obtained a bottle of 'Mother's Friend' of me before her fourth confinement, and was relieved quickly and easily. All agree that their labor was shorter and less painful." JOSEPH G. POLHILL, Macon, Ga.

Gossip.

Gossip has made many a home unhappy. Gossip has parted husbands and wives. Gossip has blackened and sullied the character of many poor girls. Gossip has parted lovers who would have been very happy if it had not been for it. One little misstep or one little indiscretion will cause gossip to rise with new strength and start on her mission. Her, did we say? We ought not to, for we have our male gossips, and as a rule they are ten times as venomous as a female. A good, healthy man gossiper is about as mean and dangerous as the meanest thing on earth.—Bennettsville Sun.
